

Study Questions Colossians Ch 1

Acc. to Colossians 1:1, who is our brother?

Acc. to Colossians 1:2, from whom are grace and peace?

Acc. to Colossians 1:23, what have you heard?

Acc. to Colossians 1:24, what is the church?

Acc. to Colossians 1:26, what is the word of God?

Among whom has God chosen to make known the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory?

Among whom has this gospel been bearing fruit and growing?

By whom and for whom were all things created?

By whom were all things created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities?

For whom do we pray?

For whom have we not stopped praying?

From what has the Father rescued us?

From what may you not be moved?

How did God reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven?

How may you please the Lord?

In what do I rejoice?

In what may you continue, established and firm?

In what may you grow?

In what might he have the supremacy?

In whom do we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins?

In whom does his energy work so powerfully?

In whom may we present everyone perfect?

In whom was God pleased to have all his fullness dwell?

Into what has the Father brought us?

Of what have I, Paul, become a servant?

Of what have we heard?

Of whom may you live a life worthy?

On what was his blood shed?

Since when has this gospel been bearing fruit and growing among you?

Since when have we not stopped praying for you and asking God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding?

To what do I labor, struggling with all his energy, which so powerfully works in me?

To what has the gospel been proclaimed?

To whom is the mystery now disclosed?

What did God reconcile to himself?

What did you learn from Epaphras?

What did you understand in all its truth?

What do we always do when we pray for you?

What has been bearing fruit and growing among you?

What has been kept hidden for ages and generations?

What has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven?

What have we not stopped doing since the day we heard about you?

What if you continue in your faith, established and firm, not moved from the hope held out in the gospel?

What is bearing fruit and growing all over the world?

What is now disclosed to the saints?

What is stored up for you in heaven?

What is the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the saints?

What is the Son before?

What so powerfully works in me?

What things were created by the Son?

What was God pleased to have dwell in him?

What were created by the Son and for the Son?

When do we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ?

When has the mystery been kept hidden?

Where is this gospel bearing fruit and growing?

Who also told us of your love in the Spirit?

Who are at Colosse?

Who gave me the commission to present to you the word of God in its fullness?

Who has become a servant of the gospel?

Who has brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves?

Who has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death?

Who has rescued us from the dominion of darkness?

Who is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead?

Who labors, struggling with all his energy, which so powerfully works in him?

Who may have great endurance and patience?

Who was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him?

Whom do we always thank when we pray for you?

Whom have we not stopped asking to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding?

Whom may you please in every way?

Why do we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you?

Why do we proclaim him, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom?

With what have we not stopped asking God to fill you?