

Study Questions Colossians Ch 4

Acc. to Colossians 4:18, what be with you?

Acc. to Colossians 4:3, for what am I in chains?

For what may God open a door?

For whom does Paul vouch?

For whom is Epaphras working hard?

How are you to be wise?

How are you to devote yourselves to prayer?

In what may you stand firm, mature and fully assured?

In whom is Tychicus a fellow servant?

Of what are you to let your conversation be always full?

Of what are you to make the most?

Of whom is Onesimus one?

To whom are you to give my greetings?

What are you in turn to read?

What are you to do after this letter has been read to you?

What are you to do so that you may know how to answer everyone?

What are you to let be always full of grace, seasoned with salt?

What are you to pray for us?

What are you to see is also read in the church of the Laodiceans?

What may God open for our message?

What may we proclaim?

What will Tychicus and Onesimus tell you?

When are you to see that this letter is also read in the church of the Laodiceans and that you in turn read the letter from Laodicea?

Where are you to see that this letter is also read?

Who are the only Jews among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God?

Who have received instructions about Mark?

Who is coming with Onesimus, our faithful and dear brother, who is one of you?

Who is in chains for the mystery of Christ?

Who is one of you and a servant of Christ Jesus?

Who is our faithful and dear brother, who is one of you?

Who is the cousin of Barnabas?

Who is working hard for you and for those at Laodicea and Hierapolis?

Who know that they also have a Master in heaven?

Who may know about our circumstances?

Who may open a door for our message?

Who may proclaim the mystery of Christ?

Who vouches for Epaphras?

Who will tell you everything that is happening here?

Whom are you to tell "See to it that you complete the work you have received in the Lord"?

Whose greetings are you to give to the brothers at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house?

Why let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt?

Why may God open a door for our message?

With what are you to let your conversation be seasoned?

With whom is Tychicus coming?