

Study Questions Philippians Ch 1

Acc. to Philippians 1:2, from whom are grace and peace?

Acc. to Philippians 1:3, when do I thank my God?

Acc. to Philippians 1:6, of what am I confident?

Acc. to Philippians 1:9, what is my prayer?

Between what am I torn?

By whom will you not be frightened in any way?

For what will what has happened to me turn out?

For what will you contend as one man?

For whom am I in chains?

How do the former preach Christ?

In what may your love abound more and more?

On whose behalf has it been granted to you not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for him?

Through what will what has happened to me turn out for my deliverance?

Through what will your joy in Christ Jesus overflow on account of me?

To whom has it become clear that I am in chains for Christ?

Until when will he who began a good work in you carry it on to completion?

What are you to do in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ?

What can God testify?

What do I desire?

What do the latter do in love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel?

What has become clear throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else?

What has been granted to you on behalf of Christ?

What has really served to advance the gospel?

What if I am to go on living in the body?

What is better by far?

What is the important thing?

What may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight?

What will he who began a good work in you do?

What will I do so that through my being with you again your joy in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me?

What will mean fruitful labor for me?

What will overflow on account of me?

What will turn out for my deliverance?

When do all of you share in God's grace with me?

Where may Christ be exalted, whether by life or by death?

Who are servants of Christ Jesus?

Who desires to depart and be with Christ?

Who do so in love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel?

Who eagerly expects and hopes that he will in no way be ashamed?

Who is confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus?

Who is convinced of this?

Who is put here for the defense of the gospel?

Who is torn between the two?

Who may be able to discern what is best?

Who preach Christ out of envy and rivalry?

Who thanks his God every time he remembers you?

Who will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus?

Whom do I thank every time I remember you?

Why am I put here?

Why do I always pray with joy?

Why do the latter do so in love?

Why may your love abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight?

With whom do I desire to depart and be?

Yet what shall I choose?